RESPONDENT

WHEREAS, the following facts are true:

Respondent has infringed upon the petitioner's freedom of speech by arbitrarily deleting TWO profiles established by the petitioner on 5 October 2006 and again on 1 November 2006 (FRIEND ID # 116803500) because an administrator for the respondent simply disliked something displayed on the petitioner's profile, citing a fraudulent reason and calling it "a violation of terms of service",

Respondent has continued to neglect the petitioner's repeated requests to halt notifications of weblog postings by fellow users for the account which the respondents have fraudulently deleted, constituting bad faith and breach of contract as well,

Respondent has abusively attacked the petitioner for displaying and exercising protected freedom of speech and freedom of expression by arbitrarily declaring a "violation of terms of service",

Respondent has failed to provide live personnel to deal with or even address petitioner's complaints, routing instead to an automated answering service,

Respondent has failed to assist the petitioner by correcting specific problems in their operating system which have since 1 November failed, and continue to fail, to allow the petitioner to open a new account on the respondent's website,

Respondent has violated the petitioner's freedom to use the social networking site in peace,
